

Disproportionate Representation	Significant Disproportionality
Disproportionate Overrepresentation <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. relative risk ratio (RRR) and a weighted risk ratio (WRR) of 3.00 or higher; 2. student sub-group enrollments by race/ethnicity that are at least 5% of the district's total enrollment; and 3. a minimum IDEA Child Count of 45 students for All Disabilities or 20 students in the category examined. Disproportionate Underrepresentation <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. relative risk ratio (RRR) and a weighted risk ratio (WRR) of 0.30 or lower; 2. student sub-group enrollments by race/ethnicity that are at least 5% of the district's total enrollment; and 3. a minimum IDEA Child Count of 45 students for All Disabilities or 20 students in the category examined. 	Significant Disproportionality <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. relative risk ratio (RRR) and a weighted risk ratio (WRR) of 7.00 or higher; 2. student sub-group enrollments by race/ethnicity that are between $\geq 15\%$ to $\leq 85\%$ of the district's total enrollment and >50; and 3. a minimum Child Count of 75 students in the category examined.